Governor Grants JCUA Water Improvement Funds

On May 5th, Mississippi Governor Tate Reeves granted The JCUA $2.70 million in GOMESA funds for sewer improvement projects to improve water quality in Jackson County waterways and along it's coast. GOMESA is the Gulf of Mexico Energy and Security Act of 2006 that created a revenue sharing model for use of lease proceeds to improve water quality, On behalf of all the JCUA, we thank Governor Reeves for his confidence in the JCUA to fulfill our mission of bettering the environment.
